Welcome to our 2026 Holiday Brochure

Celebrating 100 Years of Maxfields Travel

As you dive into this year's brochure, prepare for something truly special! 2026 marks our incredible 100th year in operation, and I am overjoyed to still be standing strong as an independent, family-run business right here in South Yorkshire. This centennial milestone isn't just about us; it's a celebration of every journey, every smile, and every cherished memory we've shared with you.

We've worked tirelessly to make this celebratory year unforgettable. Based on your fantastic feedback and popular demand, we've listened! Our customers have been asking for more opportunities to explore the dazzling capital, so we're thrilled to introduce a stunning new line-up of special trips and short breaks to London! Alongside these capital city delights, you'll find our popular Scottish tours and Irish delights, offering a fresh array of escapes.

Your holiday adventure begins with our expert, knowledgeable office staff—always on hand to offer personalized advice and help you craft the perfect, memory-making escape. Holidays are precious; they're your chance to build memories, gather experiences, and, most importantly, enjoy that essential 'you time.'

On the road, our dedicated drivers ensure a professional and personal service that elevates every trip. They're the welcoming smiles and helpful hands that truly make your Maxfields holiday exceptional.

Of course, the true heart of Maxfields is you – our passengers, our friends, and our family. This isn't just a marketing phrase; it's the honest truth. You complete the journey, you make the memories, and most crucially, you make Maxfields! Without your loyal, returning custom, your wonderful reviews, and your unwavering support, we simply wouldn't be celebrating this momentous anniversary. I want to extend my deepest, heartfelt thank you to all of you!

So, here's to an exciting 2026! I encourage you to celebrate with us by maybe stepping a little outside your comfort zone this year. Why not try one of our new London spectaculars or a tour you've never picked before?

Much Love!

Benjamin Maxfield

Greatest Gardens

Holiday Inn, Sheperton

Join Maxfields this summer when we take you to visit some of Britain's finest and most beautiful gardens.

Day One

Travel to London and start your visit at one of the best known gardens in the world: Hampton Court Palace & Gardens, the former home of flamboyant King Henry VIII. Discover Henry's enormous Tudor kitchens, get lost (and hopefully found) in the world's oldest puzzle maze and great vine (submitted to the Guinness World Record Book in 2005), and learn all about your surroundings from the costumed tour guides. Hampton Court Palace is also home to a huge variety of wildlife, including the descendants of Henry VIII's deer herd.

Day Two

After breakfast, it's off to Kew Gardens for a full day to explore this world famous attraction. With more than 130 hectares of landscapes and gardens, tropical glasshouses, giant water lily pools, a treetop walkway and lake, it's no wonder that Kew is a firm favourite with groups of all ages. When it's time for lunch, there's a choice of four cafés and restaurants.

Day Three

Royal Horticultural Society Wisley is generally regarded as the jewel in the crown of the many RHS gardens around the UK and undoubtedly one of the finest gardens in the world. There are more than 200 acres of gardens offering exquisite examples of innovative design and cultivation techniques. Your visit includes a 60-minute tour, giving you time to learn all about the history of the RHS and Wisley and explore the impressive glasshouse and exotic plants. It's a fitting end to three days of gardening excellence.

Join us on a captivating 5-day tour, departing in spring to explore some of England's most historic and beautiful treasures. Your home base will be the comfortable and convenient Mercure Maidstone Hotel, where you can relax and recharge after each day of discovery.

Your Incredible Itinerary

Day One Arrive in style, travel to your hotel and settle in for a relaxing evening, preparing for the adventure ahead.

Day Two The Tudor Dynasties Step into the world of Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn! In the morning, you'll explore the stunning Penshurst Place, a medieval manor house with a rich history. In the afternoon, discover the story of Anne Boleyn at her childhood home, the magnificent Hever Castle, and wander through its glorious 125 acres of gardens.

Day Three "The Loveliest Castle in the World" & a Gardener's Paradise Prepare to be enchanted by Leeds Castle, an iconic landmark with 900 years of history set within 500 acres of breathtaking parkland. Later, immerse yourself in the world-famous Sissinghurst Castle Garden, a series of enchanting 'rooms' each with its own unique character and theme.

Day Four A Fortress of History and a sacred sanctuary your day begins at the awe-inspiring Dover Castle, where you'll explore its powerful Great Tower and the secret wartime tunnels that played a pivotal role in WWII. Then, we travel to the historic city of Canterbury for a guided tour of its magnificent Cathedral, followed by free time to explore the charming city centre.

Day Five A fond farewell after a final breakfast, it's time to travel home, carrying with you incredible memories of the history, beauty, and grandeur of Kent.

Discovering Jersey

HISTORY, HERITAGE & LUXURY

Merton Hotel

For five relaxing nights, you will stay at the highly-rated Merton Hotel, a favourite among Jersey visitors. Your package includes a delicious full breakfast and a superb three-course evening meal each day, ensuring you are well-fed and rested for every day's adventure.

The Itinerary

Day One Journey to St Helier Your memorable Jersey holiday begins with a comfortable executive coach journey to Poole followed by a scenic ferry crossing to St Helier. You will travel as foot passengers, you will need to take your own luggage on board the boat. Upon arrival on the island, a dedicated coach will meet you and provide a swift, relaxing transfer directly to the welcoming Merton Hotel.

Day Two Coastal Splendour & Island Gems Discover the true essence of Jersey on our full-day guided island tour. We'll explore the island's most stunning bays, including the sweeping sands of St Ouen's and the beautiful crescent of St Brelade's. The tour highlights include picture-perfect views of the Corbiere Lighthouse, the majestic tidal fortress of St Elizabeth Castle, and the serene beauty of St Matthew's (Glass) Church. Our journey concludes with a drive through the charming, granite-built village of St Aubin.

Day Three Wartime reflections and vineyard indulgence this morning offers a deeply moving and educational experience at the Jersey War Tunnels. Explore the former WWII underground military hospital and gain profound insight into the five challenging years of German occupation. In the afternoon, we switch gears and enjoy a delightful coach transfer to the La Mare Wine Estate for a guided tour of the vineyards and a relaxed tasting of their award-winning produce.

Day Four botanic beauty and grand afternoon tea awaken your senses with a morning visit to the tranquil Botanic Gardens at Samarès Manor. Wander through the colourful 1920s-created gardens, inhaling the various aromas and admiring the historical landscape. An optional tour of the Manor House and Rural Life Museum can be arranged locally. The afternoon is dedicated to luxury: we conclude our touring with a classic Afternoon Tea at the prestigious St Brelade's Bay Hotel, a perfect, indulgent farewell to the island.

Day Five Today is a day for you to explore St Helier yourself and indulge in all this town has to offer.

Day Six Departure after a final full breakfast at the Merton Hotel, your coach will transfer you back to the ferry terminal or airport for your journey home, filled with wonderful memories of Jersey's unique blend of history, coastline, and charm.

Portsmouth

Holiday Inn, Portsmouth

The Itinerary

Day One

Travel to your hotel.

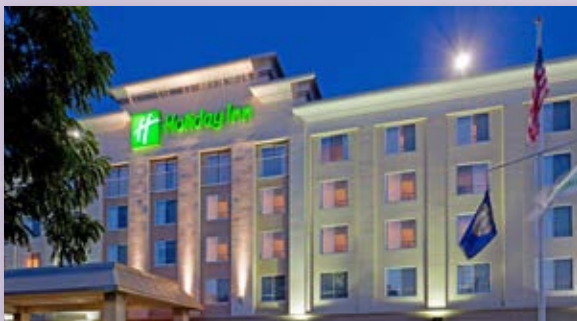

Day Two

Portsmouth: The Mary Rose & D-Day Story

Today we experience The Mary Rose, Henry VIII's warship – lost for 437 years. Since the historic raising in 1982 the ship has been painstakingly dried and guests are now able to see The Mary Rose in all her majestic glory. There are also 10,000+ artefacts that were recovered from the wreck on display. Discover this Tudor-era time capsule for yourself.

The brand new D-Day story is a must-see when visiting Portsmouth. The extraordinary story of France's liberation from Germany is told in three parts; Preparation, D-Day and the Battle of Normandy, Legacy and the Overlord Embroidery. There is also a museum shop and cafe to explore.

Whilst located at Portsmouth historic dockyard, the Mary Rose is a separate attraction. Groups wishing to visit other attractions within the dockyard itself must purchase an additional ticket.

Day Three

Gosport: Royal Navy Submarine Museum and 'Little Woodham' 17th-Century Village

HMS Alliance is Britain's only remaining World War II submarine and stands as a memorial to the 5,300 British submariners who have lost their lives in service. Climb aboard and take a journey through every decade of her service. Groups can walk through at their own pace and ask questions to the guides on-hand, most of whom are former submariners. In the museum there are also permanent displays. There is a small kiosk on site and a larger cafe at the Explosions!

After lunch we call into 'Little Woodham', a volunteer led historical re-enactment of 17th-century village life in rural England, where villagers going about their daily life and visitors are able to immerse themselves in the hustle and bustle of the community.

Guests wishing to return to Portsmouth Historic Dockyards instead of 'Little Woodham' can do at a supplement.

Skegness

The North Parade Hotel

Your hosts Lee and Julie Anne Bunce invite you to visit them at the North Parade Hotel, a family run hotel, where you will find a friendly and informal atmosphere. Ideally located on the sea front, the North Parade Hotel overlooks the Rose Gardens, Sun Castle and bowling greens. Many of the guests return to them every year and they hope that your North Parade experience will be a memorable one.

Perched on the official 'drier side of Britain', Skegness is a seaside resort that's small enough to offer a friendly atmosphere but large enough to provide hours of entertainment for young and old alike. It is perfectly flat, which makes it very popular with our less mobile guests.

On our outward journey we depart later and go direct to Skegness. On our homeward journey we leave at 10am and return directly home.

- A. On receipt of your enquiry, we will reserve a holiday for 24 hours. If you wish to confirm the booking you must contact our office within the 24 hour period to pay your deposit of £60 per person, plus insurance (if required) by debit card.
- B. A confirmation of your booking will be forwarded to you within 7 days of us receiving your deposit.
- C. You must then pay the balance 56 days before departure (without any further reminder from ourselves)
- D. Holiday price includes coach travel, accommodation, excursions and meals as specified in the holiday description. Some hotels make a small charge for tea & coffee taken after meals. Morning coffee, afternoon teas, personal items and liquid refreshment are not included in the price of the holiday.

2. INSURANCE – WE RECOMMEND THAT YOU TAKE OUT TRAVEL INSURANCE.

3. ROOM ALLOCATION & SPECIAL REQUEST

Every effort will be made to provide precisely the accommodation booked and convey special request to the hotelier. However, Maxfield's (here after known as the company) accepts no liability for any failure to provide a special request for which no payment is made and no correspondence will be entered into concerning the hoteliers failure to meet such requests. Where a payment is made for additional facilities, the company's liability shall be limited to the brochure price of that supplement, unless it is stated on the booking form that the booking is contingent on the provision of such facilities. Bookings for rooms with bath or shower shall be deemed to be fulfilled by the provision of either facility and request for one or the other will be treated as requests only. When booking a double room, request for a double or twin bed must be made clearly, otherwise it will be assumed that either is acceptable.

4. CANCELLATION BY THE COMPANY.

The company reserve the right to cancel departures if the number of clients wishing to travel is less than 25 persons. The company shall not normally cancel a holiday if for any reason it is found necessary to do so the company will provide an equivalent tour. If this alternative is not suitable, the company will refund all monies paid, where upon all liability on the part of the company shall cease. Cancellation by the client. If a client wishes to cancel a holiday we must be informed in writing immediately. Your notice of cancellation will only be effective when it is received in writing by ourselves.

5. LATE ARRIVALS BY PASSENGERS AND PASSENGERS IN DIFFICULTIES.

Should a passenger arrive late at any halt en route in accordance with the itinerary notified to clients, either verbally or in writing, the company will not accept responsibility to delay departure and a passenger who misses a vehicle shall have no claim against the company. However, in accordance with the industry Code of practice the company will make every effort to assist passengers who get in to difficulties through circumstances beyond their control providing the passengers request such assistance from the company by telephoning its number.

6. HOTEL AMENITIES

Please remember that some facilities (e.g. lifts) are not always available due to sudden breakdowns or the need to service them. Other facilities (e.g. outdoor pools, etc) are only available when weather permits. THE NATURE & FREQUENCY OF ENTERTAINMENT IS ALSO AT THE DISCRETION OF THE HOTEL.

7. SEATING PLAN

Everything is done to conform to the seating plan, but the company reserve the right to modify these as necessary and the company cannot accept bookings contingent upon provision of specific seats. In the event that the vehicle has seat numbers different from the brochure seating plan – the row number and position (offside/nearside) and not the seat numbers shall be the determining factor in deciding where passengers shall sit. The signing of the booking form shall imply the acceptance of these terms for all the persons on that booking firm.

8. TRANSFERS

The company will accept transfers of a tour to other tours or other dates more than 70 days prior to departure without the loss of deposit providing the client pays an administration cost of £50 per person. It is not possible to transfer the booking to another tour 70 days or less. If your tour or break includes admission or is a ticketed event, you will incur the cost of that ticket and this will be deducted from your deposit.

9. FIXED PRICE

All prices are guaranteed against any fluctuation as a result of cost changes. This guarantee does not extend to the introduction of new taxes or changes or applicability of V.A.T and fuel increases.

10. COMPLAINTS & DISPUTES

It is a condition of the contract between us that you raise any complaints with the relevant person as and when they arise. The relevant person is the hotel manager for a comp of any failure by the hotel manager to resolve a complaint about the hotel) we cannot deal with complaints which have not been raised in this way. In the complaint regarding the hotel services and the tour driver for complaints about travel arrangements (the tour driver will also attempt to assist in the event that it is found impossible to rectify a problem arising during the holiday, we can normally agree an amicable settlement between us after you have returned from your holiday, providing you write to us within 28 days of the completion of the holiday.

11. HOLIDAY CANCELLATION

In the event of a holiday cancellation prior to 60 days of departure, you will incur the loss of your deposit. Any cancellations made between 60 and 0 days of your holiday, you will lose the full amount paid.
